A contemporary look with the soul of natural stone

Dakota reveals a new approach to stone-like surfaces with a clean, contemporary look, preserving and reviving the vitality and charm of natural stone.

Vivid color tones and light veining radiate elegance and style. The multi-format pattern, paired with the coordinating wall mosaic, enhances the warm feeling of stone.

A tall, slender, woven vase made of light brown straw or reeds sits on a large, rectangular, grey stone-look tile floor. A green plant with heart-shaped leaves is placed inside the vase, with some leaves extending above the rim. The lighting is soft, casting a gentle shadow of the vase onto the floor to its left.

The Dakota range stands out for its versatility, thanks to its five different sizes that include a 20mm thick version for exteriors and wet rooms, mosaics, and designer accessories to meet every architectural need.

The surface texture is surprisingly soft to the touch with a totally refined look, and it combines style with ease. Dakota is Italian made gres porcelain stoneware: the best in quality and design.

Dakota's texture seemingly appears to change in its different sizes: essential and sophisticated in the larger sizes, natural and vibrant in the multisize package, where the liveliness of the graphics and the surface structure is at its fullest.
